Dear Mr. Weisberg:

In your letter of 11/14/72 you mentioned that you were to receive "the unsold copies of the book Frame-Up" from the publisher, and that the publisher cheated you out of part of the advance and has now decided to remainder the books.

In the latest issue of "Christmas Marboro" book sale bargains, on page 2, column 1 [Marboro Books, 205 Moonachie Road, Moonachie, New Jersey 07074], they list your book Frame-Up for $10.00 and are selling it at a special price of $1.00.

Apparently, Outerbridge & Dienstfrey did not return all unsold copies to you. Normally, Marboro Books keep a large supply on hand for their customers. Their regular book listings are available free upon request.

I thought I would bring this matter to your attention if case you were not aware of this sale.

By now you probably received the additional newspaper clippings on Gyril Wecht, and I hope they were of interest.

Best wishes for the Thanksgiving holiday. I'll be visiting relatives in Cleveland during that time.

Respectfully yours,

E. J. Bade
